APPOINTMENT OF EXPLORATION MANAGER, ZAMBIA

Tertiary Minerals plc is pleased to announce that it has retained the services of Richard Belcher as its Exploration Manager for Zambia.

Richard is a multi-commodity, multi-disciplined explorationist with a strong technical background and 19 years’ post-PhD experience across all stages of exploration with an emphasis on gold and base metals in Africa, including in Zambia.

He has a proven capability from reconnaissance through to resource stage in challenging environments and was most recently a senior consulting geologist to Altus Strategies before its recent merger with Elemental Royalties.

Richard holds a BSc (Hons) Exploration Geology from Cardiff University (UK) and a PhD from Stellenbosch University (RSA) and is a Chartered Geologist and Fellow of the Geological Society of London.

Commenting today, Executive Chairman Patrick Cheetham said:

“This is a key appointment for the Company as we ramp up our exploration in Zambia. Richard will be leading the collaboration with major Zambian copper producer First Quantum Minerals that we announced earlier this month.

We look forward to working with Richard and with FQM and to our first joint technical meeting with FQM which is due to be held next week.”
